A close-up photograph of the interior of a car, specifically the center console area. The image shows a black leather-upholstered seat with white stitching on the left. The center console is open, revealing a storage compartment with a black plastic insert. The insert has two cup holders and a small circular speaker. A red emergency release button is visible on the side of the console. The background shows the rear of the car with a perforated leather seat. The text "MOTORLAND" is overlaid in the center of the image.

A photograph of a car's interior, looking up at the ceiling. A large, rectangular panoramic sunroof is visible, showing a clear blue sky. The sunroof is framed by a black border. To the left of the sunroof, there is a rectangular light fixture with two illuminated sections. Below the sunroof, on the right side, is a grey leather car seat with a perforated pattern. The car's interior is light-colored, and there are some plastic-wrapped items on the left side of the ceiling.
